I am a regular practitioner before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India since 2007. From September 2009 working independently, presenting cases and arguing cases before this Court. There are four reportable Judgements in SCC, which are argued by me. I have also assisted the Hon'ble Court in one Constitutional matter. I will ensure the transparency in SCBA Executive Committee and the food quality served in different canteens in the vicinity of the Supreme Court with better hygiene facilities with reasonable pricing. I will also make sure that whenever any matter is re-filed a date should also reflect in that diary no. and not that date when the registry people clears it and registration number is given. I will ensure adequate representation of all the SCBA Members in Supreme Court Legal Aid Service Committee with all the fairness and transparency.
